

5-2-1825

Letter from David Young to James B. Finley

David Young

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.owu.edu/finley-letters>

Recommended Citation

Young, David, "Letter from David Young to James B. Finley" (1825). Finley Letters. 364.
<https://digitalcommons.owu.edu/finley-letters/364>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Finley Letters Collection at Digital Commons @ OWU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Finley Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ OWU. For more information, please contact earutigl@owu.edu.

Dear Friend

James B. Finley
Wm. Sandusky
Ohio

1825

878

Dr Bro

Lanesville May 2nd 1825

I rec^d yours by no folder but have declined writing to you till now because my wife thinks that perhaps she might get home such if she undertook to stay at Sandusky all the time it will take for me to get round to Mill Creek &c. I have been trying to get some person to take out a week or so before I get to you but in this I failed - So my present plan is to take her along with me to Urbana there leave her - attend Bellefontaine (I have never heard from White) & return there, where I shall expect you to meet me on Thursday evening June 2nd you will only have to bet out a day sooner on this account. My doubts about the roads is the occasion of my wishing to see you at Urbana at that time. I shall ^{be} in a little wagon & there may be no direct road from Mill Creek to Sandusky - So meet me any how meet me for I want to see you

This is all predicated on my going out to pay you a visit provided "I be first some-what filled with your company." You can then come with us to Delaware to see with what success I fulfill his "tooting-horn"!!

On the receipt of this you will write to me immediately; direct Meade that I may get your purposes & wishes on my arrival there before B F Dillingham.

Mr Garrison is still in very delicate health I feel considerably wasted from preaching here twice yesterday (Dum is gone to Cheltenham) I preached fore-noon on the "unchristian use of afflictions" Amos 4. 11. In the P.M. on "The design of the Almighty in laying afflictions upon us" 1 Pet. 1. 6, 7.

May every event & affliction work for our good at least in the world to come

I am undeviatingly yours

W B Finley

Garrison